PLENTY OF FUN AND GOOD
MUSIC AT THE BOOKER
THIS WEEK

The Martin-Walker Company has a spicy entertainer in the musical comedy, "Met in a Cabaret," at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The offering is put over at a speed that keeps the humorous vein at fever heat.

The action of the playlet centers around two men who refused to take their wives to church, claiming they had to attend to lodge duties. The women, out of revenge, went to the cabaret. It so happened that the men went to the same place. There is plenty of comedy in the actions and narrow escapes of the Quartette before they discover each others presence. The fun is perforated with several witty songs and dance numbers which include: "High Browed Babies Ball," by Tia Ray and the girls; "I'm A Fool Lonesome," by Babe Brown, suggested by the girls in a "Shimmie" dance; A comic song "Stiff," by Billy Walker; "There'll Be Some Changes Made," by Henretta Davis; A harmonious quartette by Martin, Ray, W. Walker and Miss Roy; Miss Brown in a sweet rendition of "Pretty Little Bialbow"; and Miss Pearl Brown in "Stepping The Blues Away," assisted by Misses Brown and Davis. In a screaming crowd hit, Martin and Walker are the fun makers and they keep the audience in a continuous mood of hilarity. The engagement closes Sunday night.

Frank Montgomery's Show

Show Next Week
Frank Montgomery's "Hello 1920" Company, with the biggest traveling show that has ever been booked at the Booker Washington Theatre, consisting of 15 performers, will be the attraction next week beginning Monday. Montgomery is one of the best producers on the club and is a favorite here. In the company which will be at the R. W. B. is a screaming perfect beauty chorus with wonderful costumes is featured and special scenery is required for the production.

GIRLS FEATURING NEW SONGS

EACH WEEK AT MANHATTAN

Leona Pease and Elizabeth Johnson, the Jazz Queens, are making a big hit at the Manhattan Cafe. Newstead and Pease, with new songs every week. During the coming week, these entertainers will feature: "Moonshine," "Let The Rest Of The World Go By," "Um Hm," "Some Day Sweet Heart."

The Manhattan is being crowded nightly with a clientele of music and dance lovers, and are receiving high class service in the line of food—hot and cold drinks and cocktails.

Rialto Stroll Next Tuesday

The Rialto Girls Club will produce their "Rialto Stroll" next Tuesday, February 27, in the competition of most popular club dancing. The Rialto Club did not appear last Tuesday as announced, although Miss Langue states that a representative of the club reserved the date for its production.

SMALL INCREASE IN ADMISSION PRICE AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

Net Increase Of About Two And One-Fourth Cents To Cover Advanced Railroad Expenses

Mr. Charles Turpin announces that a net increase of about two and one-fourth cents in admission prices will go into effect at the Booker Washington Theatre beginning next Monday, February 27. In making the new prices, the following changes have been arranged: The general admission is increased from 17 to 20 cents; Reserve seats from 22 to 25 cents; Box seats from 24 to 26 cents; and children from 11 to 15 cents. The theatre will pay the 10 per cent war tax.

The slight increase to the individual patron is insignificant, but the aggregate amount will serve to cover the advanced railroad costs of the big traveling companies, which are now being booked at this theatre. The managers of theatres have been struggling along, under a heavy burden, for several months, due to high railroad rates, in hope that a legal some relief agreement might be reached.

Advance Only For Expenses

The advance in admission prices is not for profit and was only increased sufficiently to cover the added railroad fares. A better grade of traveling shows have been booked at the Booker Washington Theatre. Next week, beginning Monday, the attraction will be Frank Montgomery's "Hello 1920" Company with 15 performers. This is the biggest show that has ever come to the theatre. It carries special scenery and a lavish display of fancy costumes. The show comes favorably with the famous old productions for which theatre-goers willingly paid a dollar for a desirable seat.

MAMIE GARDNER-SMITH AT THE COLISEUM

When The Argus went to press the indications were that Mamie Smith, the phonograph star, and her "Jazz Band" would have a big crowd at The Coliseum, this Friday night, in witness of "Jazz Band." There had been a tremendous demand for seats. The celebrated singer is to accompany a girl named as Mamie Gardner and is a favorite.

Reception At Jaxland

Mamie Smith and her company have been booked at Jaxland, and her friends will have an opportunity to pay tribute to the famous singer.

AT THE MOVIES

THE STAR—The coming week's program at The Star Theatre will open Saturday with Jack London's great story of the unseen, "The Star Rover."

The story deals with a young physician wrongly accused of a murder and tortured by a bulldozing police inspector. His soul goes roving among the stars to the scenes of previous reincarnations, and here this made use of by his fiancee to have his subconscious mind reveal the happenings of the night when the murder was committed.

On Sunday, Harry Carey will be seen in "West is West." It is the story of a cowboy with brains—a natural free-lance who uses his head as well as his horse, or how he settles a miner's strike by shirt-sleeve diplomacy, wins a fortune for his friends as well as for himself, and makes a certain young lady realize she is not too good for him.

The Star's big feature for next Thursday will be "The Devil To Pay." This brilliant photoplay was based on one of the most unique themes ever selected for screen presentation. The leading banker and political dictator of a small town commits a crime and causes another to be sent to the gallows to cover up his guilt.

After the man's execution, a physician secures his body and resuscitates him. Secretly he assists the district attorney in gathering criminal evidence against his betrayer.

THE PENDLETON—Wallace Reid in "What's Your Hurry?" will be the feature attraction at The Pendleton Theatre this Sunday. Starting out as a professional racing pilot, the star shifts to the screen trucks when the father of a certain Virginia makes it clear to him that he does not fancy a speedster as a son-in-law. But as a publicity man for trucks, Wallie proves somewhat of a "fixer."

Finally the breaking of a big irrigation dam, threatening disaster to hundreds, gives him his big opportunity. By mobilizing a fleet of trucks and heading them to the scene of the danger, he is able to save the dam, and win the girl, besides.

On Monday and Tuesday, this theatre will show "The Truth About Husbands." The story deals with three women learn about men after marriage. It shows that women go blindly into marriage and finding a man at his face value, and woman that matrimony has only given her a disheveled check. That's the big theme of this drama that hits her home.

On next Wednesday the first episode of Charles Hutchison in the new serial, "Double Adventure," will be shown. This is the latest thriller.

THE COMET—Tom Mix in "Prairie Trails" will be seen at The Comet Theatre this Sunday. The picture is replete with exciting thrills of the Mix type. He is in rapid action from the beginning of the picture to the end, and it is he who he might lose much of the dash and speed required to make the action real. And there are certain scenes that, from their very nature, could not be rehearsed for example, the great dive over the cliff.

The first chapter of William Duncan in the latest Vitaphone chapter play, "Fighting Fate," will be presented in "The Testing Block." This picture Mr. Hart has been making a picture of fighting not only his own life as a rider, fighter, and actor, but in portraying a man being a daily. He rouses the spectators' high pitch of enthusiasm, especially when he fights half a dozen "gun" single handed, and brings them to the point of money, has come into her life and she loves him. Also, she is loved by a rich banker in London but does not return his affection. In a series of almost constant fights, she is able to solve the riddle herself, but this is the trick of the picture.

On Wednesday and Thursday this theatre will offer "The Highest Law." It is a picture which shows the manager of the great newspaper, Abraham Lincoln. It tells of a young man who was to be executed as a deserter, but really only slipped out from camp to lead farewell to a dying mother. How his life saved by President Lincoln makes an interesting and thrilling picture.

THE CRITERION—Charles Ray in "Peaceful Valley" will be the feature attraction at the Criterion Theatre this Sunday. The story deals with a young man who is a deserter, but really only slipped out from camp to lead farewell to a dying mother. How his life saved by President Lincoln makes an interesting and thrilling picture.

Entered as second class matter April 6, 1912 at the Post Office at Saint Louis, Missouri, under the act of March 3, 1879

"Go Forward" Order of Today

In urging his legislative program, Governor Arthur M. Hyde has adopted as his slogan, "Go Forward." This statement, we must confess, rings true for an idea of a progressive administration. But, the question is, how far would the Governor wish to carry his program? We are particularly interested in those measures that will give this old State a "lift" from its old and time-worn place among the states of the nation.

Governor Hyde has the opportunity of his life. He has the opportunity to prove to the people of this State his real leadership. To move along the same old beaten paths of his predecessors will be the mistake of his life.

The Republican party of Missouri has committed itself to an educational program, looking forward to better schools and better educational facilities for the Negroes of the State. This promise, we as a group here, must keep to our hearts. It is the one promise we expect the party to keep most sacred. We are watching with keen interest, the support of the party leaders of Mr. Moore's bill, which would make Lincoln Institute a university, where the boys and girls of our race will have an opportunity to get higher education in the State. It has been announced that Governor Hyde feels "lukewarm" towards Mr. Moore's bill on the ground that the amount asked for is too large, and also because he (the governor) thinks that a teachers' college would be the best for the Negroes at this time.

If these rumors are well founded, then the question we should like to know is, how does reason? What could be his line of argument to support such an opinion? There is no doubt that the State has the money. There is no argument as to the right and justice of the cause. No one dares to say the Negro youth of this State is not entitled to an opportunity to get a college education in this State.

For the governor to hide behind what the State has done in the past, will be dodging responsibilities for which the Republican party of the State must answer.

If the governor really means "go forward" and is willing himself to get out of the beaten path of the past, and is willing to bear the responsibility of a real leader, who will get the people somewhere, then we have no misgivings as to the stand he will take on Mr. Moore's educational bill, because the bill, itself, is "Forward."

Fore Warned—Fore Armed

We have had much to say in these columns during the past two months respecting the Ku Klux Klan. But we are more serious about that matter now than ever. We saw, a few days ago, in The St. Louis Star, a picture purporting to be that of one William J. Simmons, who is the active head of the clan and whom it is said, will soon leave Atlanta, Ga., his day, for a tour of the West, in the interest of his organization. We consider the picture, accompanied by a picture of the promoter, as due and timely warning to the people of St. Louis, of what they may expect in their midst soon.

Admitting that we are prejudiced against a clan because of the dirty, underhand deeds it has done against the Negroes in this country; we would call to the leaders of the Klan, and ask, what real beneficial service can the Ku Klux Klan render any community?

Admitting that the purposes of the organization to preserve law and order are noble, we would naturally want to know when did the constituted authorities delegate their power to a band of night-riders who work under the cover of darkness.

Let us suppose that a chapter of the Ku Klux Klan was organized in this city; haven't we an organized police force to look after the interest of the people?

Only the foolhardy, the low bred, the coward, the mean; those who work under the shadow of darkness; those who would smite and hide their hand will be found following the Ku Klux Klan.

Everybody who is honest enough to tell the truth will admit that the Klan has a sinister purpose. Every act of theirs is against the constituted authorities of the law.

What right has any man to ride up to my home in the dead hours of the night and kidnap me, and administer a thrashing because I have incurred his displeasure during the day? The Ku Klux Klan has no more right to exist than any other band of thieves or cut throats.

A few days ago, the members of this Klan kidnaped a lawyer, white man, who was stripped, tarred and feathered and sent into the streets naked. It is said the lawyer had been warned of having too many Negro clients. As a result of this act the South Houston Chapter No. 1, Ku Klux Klan has issued a statement under their seal, denying any knowledge of the kidnapping.

We wonder do they think that they are fooling anybody? Of course everybody knows that a seal cannot lie; but we also know that liars hankle seals.

Upon his arrival in the West, especially if he gets as far as Missouri, William J. Simmons should be first introduced to the constituted authorities of the law, and it by camouflage or evasion, he must pass them; the next best step will be to fight him with fire. Let the self-appointed task him in charge and give him a dose of his own medicine. A coat of tar and a coat of feathers will be too good for him.

Mistaken Identity

A few weeks ago, the Associated Press "played-up" a news story from Pittsburgh, Pa., about how a white woman had snatched a pistol in the face of a Negro, in a courtroom, whom she had accused of attacking her in her home some few days previous. The story also told how spectators applauded the accused without a plea or trial.

Now comes the news that said same woman has repudiated her identification of "Wilson" and accuses another Negro, who is under arrest in Pittsburgh. Her only excuse for apology is, she is sorry she made the mistake at first, but adding that she is quite sure it was another Negro, Joseph Thomas, who assaulted her.

This promiscuous identification of Negroes has caused many to lose their lives. Had this case been the South "heckle party" or lynching we would have satisfied a bloody thirst of a mob. Thinking people of the nation, taking notice of these things should be slow to condemn every Negro whom the police happens to bring in and the formal word "identified" applied.

Speaker O'Halloran has promised to take the floor in defense of Mr. Moore's bill, that the Negroes of the State may have a chance to get the higher education in their home state.

A close up view of the speaker of the House will show that he is really one of the big men of Missouri.

We are anxious to get acquainted with the new Police Board; as we wish to acquaint them with an open secret—We want Negroes in uniform on the police force.

Mayor Kiel is to speak at Porto Antiquarium next Tuesday, Feb. 22. The burning question that he is to answer is, why during the eight years of his administration he has not taken the Negro first one of the five cents of the city.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad memory of our beloved mother, sister, grandmother and niece, Mrs. Rosa Reynolds and Mrs. Fannie Walker, who departed this life Sunday, Feb. 17th and 19th 1919 and 1916.

This month brings sad memories of the ones whom we loved so dear. They are gone but not forgotten. Gone to the land where there's no fear.

Sadly missed by daughter, granddaughter and nieces, MRS. MYRTLE DENNIS.

In sad and loving memory of my dear husband, Rev. R. N. Mollison, who passed away, one year ago, Feb. 2, 1920.

The month of February is here again, the saddest of the year; Took away my dear husband, From all his earthly care.

You did your part and did it well. God took you home where the angels dwell; We saw you suffer, we saw you fade away, And we are glad to report the death of your dear husband.

We heard you part for breath, We saw you part your common check, The fatal sign of death.

Surrounded by friends we are lonesome, In the midst of our pleasures we are lonely, A smile on our face, still a heartache.

And still longing for you, Are you gone but not forgotten, Nor shall you ever be.

Sadly missed by wife, MRS. MYRTLE DENNIS.

In memory of our dear beloved pastor, Rev. T. S. Mollison, who departed this life, Feb. 22, 1920.

A year ago our pastor passed away. We thought the clouds were gray; But his presence still seems ever near. To bless us and to help us here.

For he was ever good and true, He left the church with ever new, A joy, a blessing all our days.

Rev. T. S. Mollison was called to the pastorate of Burning Bush Baptist Church, Sept. 10, 1915, located at 4200 West Lathrop and Remount avenues with eight members. When called to his pastorate from Elks to Heaven, he left the church in good standing with four hundred and eighty-four members.

He was a member of the church, an exception of eight hundred dollars. Sadly missed by members of Burning Bush Baptist Church, 4200 W. North Market St.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our son, Walter A. Lee, who departed this life, Feb. 17, 1920.

Time goes on it will not stay, The grief we have felt since that sad day; For all of us did our best, May God grant him an eternal rest, free from pain.

Sadly missed by mother and step father, MRS. PHOEBE L. CASTER.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear father, Ned Grant, who died in Houston, Texas Feb. 17, 1914.

Folly missed by children: Mrs. Mary Clark, daughter; sons: George Edith, Will, John, Abernethy, Leroy and E. T. Grant, all of them.

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of our dear friend, Walter Lee, who departed this life, Feb. 17, 1920.

Surrounded by friends I am lonesome, In the midst of my pleasures I'm lonely, A smile on my face, still a heartache, Aching and longing for you.

A FRIEND, V. RANSOM.

IN MEMORIAM
In sweet memory of our dear daughter and sister, Helen Matthews, who departed this life, Feb. 14, 1918.

Off from our heart comes a bitter cry, Why, Oh why did our dear one die? Then comes the thought so solemn and deep— She is not dead, but only asleep.

Sadly missed by mother, sisters and brothers.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Nancy Francis, who departed this life, Feb. 15, 1917.

Just four years ago today dear mother, From this weary world you fled; Passed beyond this vale of tears, O dear, To the brighter world ever dead.

You are neither dead nor sleeping For you seem so often near; Our hearts yearn to you darling, You know we loved you dear.

We will meet again and greet you, When this weary strife is over; When beyond this vale of tears, On this bright and shining shore, We'll be wonderful memory you left behind.

Sadly missed by her daughters, Mrs. Mary Francis, Mrs. Julia Elsie, Mrs. Eva McGraw.
